Preserve it for the End of the World, was released yesterday morning here on Medjugorje.com. In the writing, we mention an upcoming writing, “A Secret...” (not the 10 secrets) to be released. The writing, “A Secret...” will not be released until next week. The content was too extensive to be released with the Second of the Month apparition and message coming tomorrow. So, look for the writing, “A Secret...” to be released next week. Stay close to Medjugorje.com for more information.
