Decide for God

The view behind St. James Church in Medjugorje as the sun begins its descent, bringing about the end of the day in the village that has become the center for the spiritual renewal of the world.

"Our Lady has told us many times to 'decide for God.' We are living in a time where there is to be a clear choice to follow God's precepts. But if we do not choose God, and continually choose satan, we will lose God's grace and become inflamed in our own passions."

"We must start declaring through all of Christendom that the day has come to start living God's Commandments and teach this to everyone."
