Our Lady of Medjugorje said on April 2, 2018:

“...surrender to my Son so that you may no longer live...”

We live in an age when we hear so many people say, “I have to be me, I have to be myself...”

Yet, Our Lady tells us:

“...so that you may no longer live but my Son may live in you...”

We are not called to be “myself” we are called to be “Christ in me.”

In speaking of Our Lady’s April 2, 2018, message through Mirjana, a Friend of Medjugorje tells of the true attitude of a Christian, and dispels the myths of victimization and selfishness so prevalent in today’s society. Be sure to listen to an encore presentation of the Radio WAVEbroadcast, You Have No Right to Be Bitter, airing tonight, April 4, at 7 PM Central TimeUSA. Listen live on Radio WAVE 24 Hours...
