
July 2, 2012 Message on the Day for Nonbelievers

Our Lady Queen of Peace of Medjugorje's July 2, 2012 Message
Given to Mirjana on the Day for Non-Believers

“My children; again, in a motherly way, I implore you to stop for a moment and to reflect on yourselves and on the transience of this your earthly life. Then reflect on eternity and the eternal beatitude. What do you want? Which way do you want to set out on? The Father’s love sends me to be a mediatrix for you, to show you with motherly love the way which leads to the purity of soul; a soul unburdened by sin; a soul that will come to know eternity. I am praying that the light of the love of my Son may illuminate you, so that you may triumph over weaknesses and come out of misery. You are my children and I desire for all of you to be on the way of salvation. Therefore, my children, gather around me that I may have you come to know the love of my Son and thus open the door of eternal beatitude. Pray as I do for your shepherds. Again I caution you: do not judge them, because my Son chose them. Thank you.”

A writing by A Friend of Medjugorje will be posted today. Continue to check Medjugorje.com.

Don't forget Radio Wave today about today's message with A Friend of Medjugorje, 12:00 PM Noon Time Central USA.