
Important Note About the Upcoming Announcement

Caritas July 15, 2013 A.D.

July 15, 2013 A.D.

The announcement we had been preparing to post today, Monday, July 15, has had to be delayed because of the need to lengthen it for your benefit in understanding the great graces given to us in these five days with Our Lady. Those of you who were here will understand. It will be released at 6:00 A.M. CDT, Wednesday, July 17. We apologize for the delay, but believe you will experience that the wait was worth it. Below is the beginning of the announcement, entitled "For the Soul of America." We encourage you to spread the word about this release because it is truly for the soul of America and the cause of real hope for our nation.

The announcement we have been waiting to make, but that is known now to all the pilgrims who joined us here at Caritas for the Five Days of Prayer for the Reconciling of Ourselves, Our Families and Our Nation Back to God, July 1-5, 2013, takes some explanation to understand what is behind it and how it came to be. On July 24, 1989, Our Lady said:

"... I need you, dear children, to cooperate with me, because there are today many plans that I cannot fulfill without you. I need your cooperation. Pray, pray, pray..."

February 12, 1990

"... I need your help for the fulfillment of my plans. I need your cooperation [participation], dear children..."

July 2, 2013

"...I desire to lead you to the freedom of the promise of my Son, because I desire for God's will to be fulfilled completely here..."
