April 16, 1992

Ivan's words regarding the Holy Thursday message which was given in a basement shelter because of the bombing:

“In that message, Our Lady invited us to persevere in prayer so that in a fervent prayer we can be able to defeat evil. In that message, She repeated something She already said in the beginning of the apparitions - that war can be stopped by fasting and praying. Therefore, it is for us strong reason to pray, to be closer to God, so that with Him and with Mary together, we may defeat all that is imposed on us now.”

“Tonight I invite you in a very special manner to renew your family prayer; and during your family prayer, dear children, read especially the special passages in the Bible that concern Advent. Pray, dear children, especially during this time, and amongst your prayers prepare yourselves for the great day that is coming, that this Christmas will be different from the other Christmases, that it will be joyous, dear children. Remember, dear children, how we were happy in the stable when my Son was born! May your family be happy and all those present in the stable.”
