Time of Reflection

---

Apparition Mountain – Wednesday, March 31, 2010

A few pilgrims taking some quiet moments of reflection on Apparition Mountain during Holy Week. Our Lady thanks us for every sacrifice that we make and that God will reward us for them. Let us use the remaining days of Holy Week to reflect on the true meaning of love – the love of Jesus dying on the Cross for us, to bring us salvation.

"Dear children, today I call you to live this Lent by means of your little sacrifices. Thank you for every sacrifice you have brought me. Dear children, live that way continuously, and with your love help me to present the sacrifice. God will reward you for that. Thank you for having responded to my call."
