
We Know Where Everything's Going, So Why Aren't You Going?

Today's broadcast, We Know Where Everything's Going, So Why Aren't You Going?, is the follow-up sequel to last week's Mejanomicsbroadcast, "The Great Illusion, the Great Reality and the Greatest Opportunity in Human History... Now!"

For those who listened to last week's Mejanomicsshow, you heard A Friend of Medjugorje and Daniel Vision from the National Inflation Association speak on the grim reality of the economic situation today. This week's Radio WAVE Mejanomicsshow will give you some more solid direction for you to concretely begin to act. A must hear!
